Russell Byers Charter School

SCHOOL-PARENT and FAMILY COMPACT

The Russell Byers Charter School, and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards.

This school-parent compact is in effect during the school year 2021-2022.

REQUIRED SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT PROVISIONS

(Provisions bolded in this section are required to be in the Title I, Part A School-Parent Compact)

School/Teacher Responsibilities

The Russell Byers Charter School will:

- 1. Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards.
- 2. Hold parent-teacher conferences (at least annually in elementary schools) during which this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievement.
 - Specifically, those conferences will be held three times during the academic school year. Additional conferences may be scheduled as needed.

3. Provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress. Specifically, the school will provide reports as follows:

Pupil progress reports/interim reports are distributed quarterly to all students. In addition to these progress reports, the following communication occurs throughout the year:

- Parent Teacher Conferences
 - Phone calls
 - Email correspondence
 - Written correspondence
 - Parent access to students' agenda planner (daily)
 - School Information System (Skyward)
4. Provide parents reasonable access to staff. Distribution of email addresses will assist with correspondence. Email addresses are also located on our website.
5. Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and to observe classroom activities, as follows:
- Joining the active Home and School Association
 - Volunteering or observing in their child's classroom (When school resumes in person)
 - Engaging with their child in the many school activities throughout the year.
 - Chaperoning class trips.

Parent Responsibilities

We, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

- Avoid scheduling outside appointments during school hours except in extreme emergencies
- Volunteer in the child's classroom – when school resumes in person
- Be vigilant about monitoring attendance, lateness and academic progress
- Promoting positive use of my child's extracurricular time.
- Staying informed about my child's education and communicating with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district either received by my child or by mail and responding, as appropriate.

Student Responsibilities (revise as appropriate to grade level)

We, as students, will share the responsibility to improve our academic achievement and achieve the State's high standards. Specifically, we will:

- Do my homework every day and ask for help when I need it.
- Complete all assignments daily to the best of our ability
- Be prepared to class daily
- Cooperate with the expectations of each classroom professional
- Assist my classmates both inside and outside of the classroom setting when needed
- Give to my parents or the adult who is responsible for my welfare all notices and information received by me from my school every day.

The Russell Byers Charter School will: (must be in all compacts)

1. Involve parents in the planning, review, and improvement of the school's parental involvement policy, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way.
2. Involve parents in the joint development of any schoolwide program plan, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way.
3. Hold an annual meeting to inform parents of the school's participation in Title I, Part A programs, and to explain the Title I, Part A requirements, and the right of parents to be involved in Title I, Part A programs. The school will convene the meeting at a convenient time to parents, and will offer a flexible number of additional parental involvement meetings, such as in the morning or evening, so that as many parents as possible are able to attend. The school will invite to this meeting all parents of children participating in Title I, Part A programs (participating students), and will encourage them to attend.
4. Provide information to parents of participating students in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon the request of parents with disabilities, and, to the extent practicable, in a language that parents can understand.
5. Provide to parents of participating children information in a timely manner about Title I, Part A programs that includes a description and explanation of the school's curriculum, the forms of academic assessment used to measure children's progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet.
6. On the request of parents, provide opportunities for regular meetings for parents to formulate suggestions, and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions about the education of their children. The school will respond to any such suggestions as soon as practicably possible.

7. Provide to each parent an individual student report about the performance of their child on the State assessment in at least math, language arts and reading.
8. Provide each parent timely notice when their child has been assigned or has been taught for four (4) or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified within the meaning of the term in section 200.56 of the Title I Final Regulations (67 Fed. Reg. 71710, December 2, 2002).

To help build and develop a partnership with parents to help their children achieve the State's high academic standards, the Russell Byers Charter School will:

1. Recommend to the Regional ESSA District Liaison, the names of parents of participating children of Title I, Part A programs who are interested in serving on the State's Committee of Practitioners and School Support Teams.
2. Notify parents of the school's participation in Early Reading First, Reading First and Even Start Family Literacy Programs operating within the school, the district and the contact information.
3. Work with the School District of Philadelphia in addressing problems, if any, in implementing parental involvement activities in section 1116 of Title I, Part A.
4. Work with the School District of Philadelphia to ensure that a copy of the State Education Agency's written complaint procedures for resolving any issue of violation(s) of a Federal statute or regulation of Title I, Part A programs is provided to parents of students and to appropriate private school officials or representatives.
